

DEADLOCK AMONG THE ENVOYS

They Are Not Able to Come to Terms on the Important Issues at Stake.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., August 18.—The deadlock between the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries over article 11 of the peace conditions, the limitation of Russia's naval power, which developed at yesterday afternoon's sitting of the conference, had not been broken when the envoys adjourned for luncheon at 12:30 today.

The forenoon session was entirely given up to the consideration of the article and the official statement issued after adjournment said that the discussion would be resumed this afternoon.

While article 11 was the subject of consideration for a matter of fact the discussion was not limited to that article. It was general and covered all the questions at issue. It is expected that article 11 and the last article, No. 12 (fishing rights), will be completed early this afternoon and the plenipotentiaries will then revert briefly to the articles that have been passed over. This will be for the purpose of drawing up the final protocols to be presented next week.

The Japanese continue to show great reserve inside the conference chambers and apparently have successfully mystified the Russians as to their ultimate tactics. The adjournment at the conclusion of today's session may be until Tuesday. The Associated Press is able to state that the telegrams received from St. Petersburg this morning by M. Witte were deciphered at the navy yard, but do not change the situation so far as the Russian plenipotentiaries are concerned. No imperial indication which acquiesces in yielding up either of the main issues have been received.

The envoys spent more than an hour at luncheon today. After they had finished their repast they retired to their respective offices, where they remained for some time pending the beginning of the afternoon session.

IN SESSION.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., August 18.—When the peace plenipotentiaries met today it was practically with the tacit understanding that at the end of today's session they would adjourn until Monday. The "prophets of evil," as those who persist in believing that all hope of treaty is gone are called, predicted that today would witness the final rupture and that, at most, there would be only one more meeting, not for a final effort to reach an accord, but to exchange the diplomatic amenities and bid each other farewell.

This does not correctly represent the situation. Unless something unforeseen on either side occurs today, the final struggle will be postponed until Monday to give both sides time to hear the last word of their governments.

THE POWERS.

No matter what the written "full powers" of plenipotentiaries extraordinary may be, these modern days of the cable and the telegraph which keep envoys in instant communication with their home governments, have made more or less of a fiction of the "full powers" which in the olden days were given to the envoys charged by their governments with negotiating and settling international issues. Diplomatic negotiations are now conducted by emperors and governments rather than by emissaries. Envoys propose and emperors dispose.

KEEP IN TOUCH.

Both sets of plenipotentiaries here are in continuous communication with their governments. Accounts of each day's proceedings are cabled nightly to Tokyo and St. Petersburg, and messages are constantly arriving from both capitals. The reports of the Japanese are much longer and more complete than those of the Russians and the secretaries of both delegations work day and night preparing and deciphering messages.

Just before M. Witte left for the conference chamber this morning he received a long cipher cable. It was too late to decipher it at the hotel and M. Witte thrust it into portfolio and took it with him to the navy yard, where his secretaries could translate it.

ARTICLE 11.

Article 11 (the limitation upon Russia's naval power in the Far East) was pending when the plenipotentiaries re-assembled. The indications were that it also would go over without final action. The last article, number

ROBBER CLAIMS TO BE A DEPUTY CONSTABLE.

Charged With Highway Robbery He Says He Only Attempted an Arrest.

BERKELEY, August 18.—After chasing a supposed footpad a mile and then being lucky enough to capture him, Officer LeStrange, of the Sheriff's force, was informed last night by his prisoner, E. L. Towns, that instead of being a footpad, caught in the act, he is a deputy constable, serving under Constable Cruise of Oakland.

Peter Borgensen was held up by Towns last night about midnight, near Third and Camella streets, in West Berkeley, and told to throw up his hands. He ran instead, fleeing into Dugan's store nearby. The alarm was sounded and Officer LeStrange gave chase to the supposed footpad. When he caught him Towns declared he was a deputy constable, who had sought to arrest Borgensen because he thought the latter was a suspicious character.

Towns had no star or badge of authority, and was taken to the County Jail in Oakland, where he will be held until his preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Edgar here. At the fall it is denied that Towns is a constable or any one known to the authorities. A charge of highway robbery has been placed against him.

He was soon captured by the police, to whom he explained that he was being chased by cannibals.

He sustained no serious injury and will be examined in regard to his sanity.

FEARED STEAM ON ON VESSEL

Frightened Natives Jumped Into River and Are Lost.

SEATTLE, Wash., August 18.—Two half-breed Indians, Henry DeTrich, the Alaska Commercial Company's agent at Bethel, on Kuskowim River, and four natives recently lost their lives by jumping overboard from a small steambot on the Kuskowim.

The men whose experience on board steam vessel was limited were frightened out of their wits by steam escaping from the safety valve of the craft, and, fearing an explosion, the two DeTrich boys and five native passengers jumped overboard into the swift current of the river.

One of the natives was with difficulty rescued, but six were swept away and drowned. At the time of the accident the little river steamer was going up to Bethel, with the cargo of the steamer Volante of San Francisco, which struck and went to pieces at the mouth of the river July 6.

WANT A RECEIVER FOR BANK

Fraud is Charged Against the Denver Savings Bank.

DENVER, August 18.—Attorney Edwin H. Park, for William Corbett and others, filed a suit in the district court today asking for the appointment of a receiver for the Denver Savings Bank.

Fraud, connivance, disregard of the Colorado laws regarding savings banks and illegal preference for certain depositors on the part of the bank's officers, are the allegations in the complaint. It is charged that Leonard B. Imboden and associates obtained from the bank on questionable securities loans aggregating $65,000. In consequence of the suit a second run on the bank was started today.

ATTEMPT MADE TO BLOW UP THE WELL KNOWN NEW YORK BANKER.

Attempt Made to Blow Up the Well Known New York Banker.

NEW YORK, August 18.—An explosive package capable of causing death was sent to Jacob H. Schiff, the banker, today, at the offices of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, of which he is a member.

Mr. Schiff was at Bar Harbor today and when the machine, enclosed in a wooden box about six inches long, was received at his office, clerks immediately sent it to the police.

At first the police reported that the affair was a joke. But further investigation by an expert revealed the presence of thirty-one grains of a high explosive powder and two thirty-caliber loaded cartridges.

Arranged so as to fire this charge merely by ordinary handling of the package, was a cylinder of emery paper lying in contact with both the powder and several matches.

The flash of this powder would have discharged the cartridges which had been carefully filed at the fulminating ends.

Lead slugs were packed in beside the bullets, evidently to make the discharge more dangerous.

Throughout the machine there was an oily saturation to insure the flash of any one of the matches reaching the powder. The whole machinery was concealed under a newspaper wrapping of Wall Street stock quotations.

Mr. Schiff was one of the delegation which recently visited Mr. Witte, the Russian envoy at Portsmouth in the interest of the Jews in Russia.

A second infernal machine, resembling that sent to Mr. Schiff, was received through the mail today at the office of M. Guggenheim's Sons, No. 71 Broadway. The contents were nearly the same as those of the Schiff bomb.

A clerk was suspicious of the package, as the address was made of printed letters cut from a newspaper. He placed the package in water. After standing there a short time there was a slight explosion due, it is thought, to the gases generated in the box.

In addition to the contents of the Schiff bomb that received at the Guggenheim office contained a small glass vial in which was some liquid thought to be either nitro-glycerine or olive oil.

NEW TURN ON SHONTS BACK AT THE MAJOR OFFICE

WILL TRY TO SHOW THE MAJOR LOST CONTROL OF HIMSELF.

FINDS A BIG DEFICIT IN THE OPERATION OF THE PANAMA ROAD.

WOOSTER, O., August 18.—The cases of the Taggart new center about the records of the Circuit Court in Cincinnati. If these records can be produced Taggart's attorneys claim his case is made.

Army men say that in all likelihood Mrs. Taggart will not take the stand until Tuesday at least.

An indication of the line of defense was dropped by Attorney Smyser today in a chance remark. This is that Taggart was not in his right mind after he came back from the Philippines. There is no belief that Taggart was insane, it is said, but an attempt will be made to prove that he had lost control of himself at times and suffered from hallucinations. His letters already introduced will be used as the chief evidence of this.

MUST AVOID ALL DANGER

MAYOR DUNNE TAKES PROMPT ACTION AGAINST COMPANY.

STOCK SHIPMENT CASES

CHICAGO, August 18.—Practically all construction work on the underground tunnels of the Illinois Tunnel Company was stopped today by the order of Mayor Dunne and no work will be permitted to go on until the company devises some method of constructing its connections, by-passes and new drifts to prevent the danger of the sinking of buildings and the settling of streets.

The secretary, in response to inquiries as to whether he will ask Congress for a modification of the law in order to give shippers and railroads the relief they demand, said he was inclined to think the time limit might be extended in hauls in territory west of the Missouri river, but that east of the Missouri river an extension of time is not advisable.

Financial circles today showed some trepidation, but Russian stocks maintained their prices.

SECRETARY WILSON HAS JUST COMPLETED INVESTIGATION.

WASHINGTON, August 18.—Secretary Wilson of the Agricultural Department returned to Washington from Chicago today, where he conducted an investigation of the complaints against the new rules governing the shipment of stock under the twenty-eight-hour law.

The secretary, in response to inquiries as to whether he will ask Congress for a modification of the law in order to give shippers and railroads the relief they demand, said he was inclined to think the time limit might be extended in hauls in territory west of the Missouri river, but that east of the Missouri river an extension of time is not advisable.

WASHINGTON, August 18.—Chairman Shonts of the Isthmian Canal Commission has returned to Washington from a trip to the isthmus and was at his office today. He found that the Panama Railroad was operated to only one-sixth part of its capacity and intends that this shall be corrected at once. Mr. Shonts expects to return to the isthmus in time to be present at a meeting of the commission on September 3.

FRANCE HOPES FOR PEACE

PARIS, August 18.—Conflicting reports emanating from Portsmouth, though creating a feeling of uneasiness, do not give rise to any diminution of the hope and expectation that the negotiators will reach a basis for agreement. The postponement of discussion on the present points is believed not to be due to the impossibility of arriving at an agreement thereon, but is looked upon as an indication that the plenipotentiaries desire final instructions from their respective Governments relative to the extent of the concessions that will be permitted to exhibit an uncompromising attitude. The exercise of neutral influences is undoubtedly responsible for this hesitation, the knowledge of which sustains the published belief that an eventual arrangement is probable.

Financial circles today showed some trepidation, but Russian stocks maintained their prices.

WILL READ THE PROCLAMATION

ST. PETERSBURG, August 18.—It was announced today by an imperial manifesto that a proclamation proclaiming a national assembly would be read in all the churches and at meetings of Zemstvo and municipalities tomorrow (Sunday). # COLLINS CASE UP TO JUDGE Decision May Be Handed Down By the Court Tomorrow.

VICTORIA, B. C., August 18.—The extradition case against George D. Collins, the San Francisco lawyer wanted for perjury was concluded yesterday afternoon, and it is expected that on Saturday morning Judge Lampman will say whether Collins will be sent back to San Francisco or not. If Judge Lampman decides against him, Collins says he will appeal to a Supreme Court judge, and if necessary, carry his appeal to the Privy Council of England.

In the argument for Collins today, J. Taylor, K. C., recently retained to assist in the defense, made a strong point of the contract marriage with Agnes Newman in 1888, sworn to by Collins, which, he said, had not been dissolved by the prosecution, and held that if a subsequent marriage took place with Charlotte Newman, her sister, it was bigamous and void, and Collins could not be guilty of perjury in denying such a marriage. He also drew much upon the fact that the facts related to the perjury would not constitute perjury in Canada.

Attorney Higgins, for the prosecution, said the evidence was convincing that Collins had married Charlotte Newman, as attested by the necessary records and sworn to by witnesses, and in making oath before Notary Henry Newman, Collins had committed perjury. He reviewed the case and said Collins' evidence, in which he related absurd stories of persecution and vilification all too contrary to him, was unbelievable. Collins' statement of the placing of the name of Charlotte Collins in the records by mistake was incredible.

RESENTED INSULT TO MOTHER

Marine Engineer is Convicted of Battery in Police Court.

John Lawlor, a marine engineer, was this morning convicted by Police Judge Samuels of battery on Mrs. Isabella Irwin, who resides at the corner of Hudson street and College avenue. Sentence was deferred until next Wednesday at the request of the defendant.

According to the testimony of Lawlor he resented an insult hurled at his mother by a woman, Mrs. Irwin, across the face. According to the complaining witness she was hit twice by the fist of Lawlor and was sick in bed for several days. There was a wide diversity of evidence as to the amount of damage done by the battery, but there was no question that Lawlor used force and violence on Mrs. Irwin.

The trouble grew out of an altercation between the mother of Lawlor and Mrs. Irwin about the picketing of a cow. Mrs. Irwin stated that Mrs. Lawlor had threatened to kill her.

MUST NOT FOOL THE JUDGE

Attorneys in Judge Ellsworth's department were warned this morning against the filing of what he termed frivolous demurrors for the purpose of delaying matters. "The laws delay" are not to be countenanced any further than it is necessary and this morning he overruled a demurrer in the case of Jane A. Mead against F. Borgwardt and ordered the defendant to pay $10 and costs before his attorney would be allowed to file his answer in this case.

The showing made in the case is that Borgwardt is a cobbler and that without permission or bargain he moved into a little house on Seventh street near Kirkham belonging to the plaintiff last October. Recently the owner had an opportunity to rent it and he refused to move out though he had the use of it for many months' rent free. When she began the present suit on August 1 to force Borgwardt to move he employed counsel to defend him.

As it is claimed there is no defense, the only thing that could be done was to delay matters as long as possible and allow Borgwardt to pay rent until further delay is impossible. It is alleged that it was for this purpose that the demurrer in the case was filed and when Judge Ellsworth heard it he expressed himself forcibly in regard to the resort to such tactics and said that he would not tolerate them. He promptly overruled the demurrer and ordered Borgwardt's attorney to pay the woman $10 for rent until the action can be heard. He wishes to die an answer in the case.

The attorneys in the case are H. L. Gear for the plaintiff and John C. Scott for the defendant.

CONGRESS STILL IN SESSION

Governor Francis Addresses Delegates in the North.

PORTLAND, Or., August 18.—A protracted meeting of the resolutions committee delayed the opening of today's session of the Trans-Mississippi Congress.

It was thought that the committee would conclude its report after the two sessions of yesterday and make a report today, but after a long wait, Governor L. B. Prince of New Mexico, chairman of the day, was forced to change the order of business. He announced that the addresses would be held and that the first speaker would be Hon. J. H. Richards of Boise, Idaho, president of the American Mining Congress. Mr. Richards, who is a member of the Department of Mines and Mining, made a clever speech.

In response to a question whether the American Mining Congress had ever taken any action that would tend to remedy certain alleged trust conditions said to affect the copper mining industry, Mr. Richards replied that the board of directors of the American Mining Congress had introduced to the congress a resolution that there is no force on earth except the United States Government able to control the conditions suggested.

Chairman Prince introduced to the congress ex-Governor David R. Francis of Missouri, president of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, who took for his subject the influence of expositions.

Governor Francis said that five years of effort without the hope of commercial remuneration had been expended in perfecting the St. Louis fair, and even if the amounts expended had never been returned, the benefits derived from the exposition fully compensated every expenditure.

Mr. Francis also advocated the improvement of the Mississippi river.

Governor Francis was followed by T. W. Morgan, Dr. of San Francisco. Mr. Morgan, who is a member of the Commercial Remuneration board, said that the amounts expended had never been returned, the benefits derived from the exposition fully compensated every expenditure.

The last speaker on this subject was Edward H. Benjamin of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, who took for his subject the influence of expositions.

Dr. Rockland Grant of Vancouver, B. C., an authority on the scenic beauties of America, who was especially invited to address the congress, said that the address on "The Scenic Beauty and its Influence on the World's Travel."

Colonel Loveland of San Francisco, president of the Pacific Manufacturers' Association, was introduced to the congress. Colonel Loveland said that owing to the proposed extent of the program he would forego the pleasure of reading his paper entitled "Encouragement to Home Manufactures."

TAFT ON RIGHT ROAD

CONGRESSMAN MCKINLEY SAYS HE IS STRAIGHT ON CHINESE QUESTION.

SANTA ROSA, August 18.—A letter has been received and published here from Congressman D. E. McKinley, a member of the Taft party, written aboard the steamer between Honolulu and Japan and forwarded from the latter place. Among other things McKinley writes of Taft's attitude on the Chinese exclusion question as follows:

"At the banquet (in Honolulu) we were all duly informed and impressed with the gravity of the situation and the proposed remedy. Secretary Taft rose to the occasion and answered fully and completely, I believe for all the delegation. The planter are pleading in number for the exclusion of Chinese, for a period of from five to ten years, and they assure the delegation they will give a bond of $1000 for every Chinaman so brought in."

"No matter what mistakes have arisen since Secretary Taft left the East on his journey to the Orient—mistakes of conception of his plain words and meaning regarding his attitude towards the admission of Chinese of any class not entitled to enter the United States—his plain, forceful talk to the Hawaiians at that luncheon set all straight so far as California is concerned. He declared to the planters of Hawaii that Chinese labor is now excluded under law and treaty and that the Administration has no desire to change either law or treaty, unless for further and closer restriction, and that those laws and treaties should remain unbroken and that the planters of Hawaii must adapt themselves to the situation as best they can. He left no mistake or misconception in the minds of any intelligent listener regarding the attitude of the Administration. It simply being to enforce the laws as they are, but to require from our immigration officials a certain degree of politeness, and consideration in their enforcement—such politeness and consideration as an American citizen has a right to expect on a visitation to the country to which the excluded persons belong."

ENEMY OF COOLIN MOTH

Spider-Legged Fly Will be Used to Clean Fruit Trees.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 18.—Skilled observers at the headquarters in this city of the State Horticultural Commission watched yesterday with intense interest the outcome of a remarkable experiment declared that result of great importance to the entire fruit industry of California had been attained. A spider-legged fly of thin and extremely muscular body, moved briskly about in a glass jar and then with wonderful instinct and great agility went straight toward a steady stream of warm air, under a glass of water in which was duffly concealed the natural prey of this fly.

Four months ago eggs and worms of the coolin moth parasite were put in cold storage in this city and have since remained there unimpairedly, under a steady temperature of 40 degrees Fahrenheit. The cold was just above the freezing point. In the ice chests all development ceased. The ordinary perception, death had followed this protracted chilling of minute forms of life. But science persisted in insect vitality is greater than might be suspected.

From the ice chests, a few days ago, eggs of the coolin moth parasite that had for 120 days been in a chilling atmosphere maintained at 40 degrees were taken to the headquarters of the Horticultural commission in the ferry building. They were carefully deposited where the warmth of the sun might thaw them out and then a fierce insect destroyer of the coolin moth was appeared. Directly this worklike insect began its work of extermination as briskly as if there were such a thing in the world as an insect most prisoned in such condition as four months of entirely suspended animation in an egg.

It was demonstrated that all fruit tree parasites and the beneficial bugs that destroy the parasites may be placed in cold storage in season, held in absolute check until they are needed, and at the proper time, when there is a demand for the insect pest destroyer or for the insect that preys upon the pest, they may be instantly met. This cuts out a long wait for the parasite that has heretofore been necessary.

Now the work of propagation may go on as well in winter as in summer, and the coolin moth and all other orchards in the State have their value enhanced by an interesting experiment, the results of which have been to insure their future as much as any other cause that has yet been discovered.

INSISTS HE IS HER HUSBAND

Ampuero is Still Pursued by an Unhappy Woman.

Mrs. Kjerstine Jacobson Ampuero, who alleges she is the discarded contract wife of John Ampuero, today obtained a warrant for the arrest of her alleged husband on a charge of battery. Mrs. Jacobson says that she was merely trying to obtain her rights as a wife by calling on Mr. Ampuero at his residence on Clay street when he ordered her off the grounds and emphasized his command by slapping her in the face.

Ampuero, according to the discarded woman's story, married her in Pleasanton in the year 1894. Soon after another woman, who is now Mrs. Bessie Ampuero came along. She was much younger and much handsomer. The result was that Ampuero contracted a matrimonial alliance with the younger woman and discarded the older one.

Since then Mrs. Jacobson has been a wanderer over the face of the earth. She has been searching for her husband, as she believes Ampuero, to avoid the attentions of the woman he was formerly associated with and has moved from town to town but each time she gets located Mrs. Jacobson appears on the scene and insists, much to her embarrassment, on being shown the honors due a wife. It was while Mrs. Jacobson was calling on her alleged husband that the battery is said to have occurred. The couple have been in the courts a half dozen times.

BLAKER CASE IS POSTPONED

The preliminary examination of George Blaker, the lad who is charged with the murder of Thomas Cook, the young grocer of Fruitvale avenue, was postponed until this morning. Judge Geary in East Oakland, was continued until next Friday morning, at 10 o'clock a. m., owing to the illness of the defendant's attorney, ex-Judge A. L. Frick.

DEADLOCK AMONG THE ENVOYS

12, relating to fishing rights on the Russian littoral, may be yielded by the Russians, but neither 10 (the interned warships) nor 11 or 12, presented insuperable difficulties. Everything now harks back to indemnity and Sakhalien. There, as from the first, is the crux. If they can be adjusted the remainder will be child's play.

JAPANESE MIND.
It is difficult to fathom the Japanese mind, but, as stated in the Associated Press dispatches last night, there have been vague moves in the conference chamber which indicate that they are willing to consider the disputed points together "en bloc" and this is the basis of the main hope that they are ready to compromise. When these points were thrown out M. Witte did not "tip his hand." He watched like a hawk, but he wanted his adversaries across the table to commit themselves. They did not do so. Nevertheless Mr. Sato reiterated to the Associated Press this morning before he went to the conference chamber that the disputed articles would be reverted to "later"—which means Monday.

FINAL TEST.
The Russians, in the final test, may yield one of the two points. They will not do more if they will do so much. If the Japanese therefore do not yield at least one the conference is wrecked. That can be regarded as certain. If the conference threatens at the last moment to go to pieces the Japanese hint vaguely at an attempt at rescue by President Roosevelt. They offer no explanation; they furnish no specifications. Where, how, in what way, they do not say. Perhaps tomorrow or Sunday an emissary might be sent to Oyster Bay to sound the President. Perhaps if they personally believe in yielding one of the main points and their government is still obdurate they will ask President Roosevelt to intercede to bring pressure to bear at Tokio. The President might be asked, simultaneously to urge both the Russian and Japanese emperors in the name of humanity to make mutual concessions. But old hands at diplomacy say the situation created would be so delicate as to preclude the possibility of President Roosevelt stepping into the breach.

THE RECESS.
The morning session of the peace conference came to an end at 12:30. The envoys repaired to the lunch room immediately. The official statement issued after the morning session is as follows:

"In the sitting of this morning, August 18, the conference has continued the discussion of article 11, and the discussion has not been finished. The discussion of the article will be resumed at 3 o'clock."

The Russians for the third morning in succession had the start of the Japanese for the navy yard today. They left the hotel about 9:10 a. m. M. Witte and Baron Rosen appeared on the veranda accompanied by several members of their mission, including General Yermoloff and Mr. Berg.

Baron Komura and M. Takahira, on their way from the elevator to their automobile, passed down an aisle of people whose greeting was acknowledged by both plenipotentiaries.

RUSSIAN VEIN.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., August 18.—Having read the statement of the Japanese member of parliament, made a few days ago to the Associated Press, giving the Japanese attitude regarding Sakhalien Island, Alexandre Bryanchanoff, correspondent of the Slovo, of St. Petersburg, voicing the Russian exceptions to the statement, said today:

GREAT BAR.
"One of the great bars to the conclusion of a treaty of peace, so much desired by the whole civilized world, is the difference between the plenipotentiaries on the question of Sakhalien. The Japanese pretend that Sakhalien is really an organic part of their empire. They say it only came into Russia's possession through force and that Russia would lose little in ceding it back to Japan, as she has shown her inability to exploit its resources, having used it only for the colonization of criminals. The Japanese people, they say, on the contrary, have always considered themselves the rightful owners and having now taken it by conquest, will never submit to relinquishing it. Of course, it is certain that the Japanese once in legal possession of the island will accomplish there much more than the Russian government has in the past, not only in agriculture, industrial and colonizing way, but especially in a military and strategic way. We cannot deny that the success of their arms has given them certain claims to the island, but these are the only claims they possess."

AN ERROR.
"It is an error for them to claim historical rights to the possession. Up to the last century the island was inhabited only by the native barbaric tribes. Then a few Russian colonists landed and occupied certain parts of the island. The Japanese began fishing in the waters of the southern end of the island. Some very small fishing villages were built. At last the legal status of the island arose. Proposals were made to divide it between Russia and Japan. The Japanese never made any claim to the whole of the island and their political interests there were so limited that in 1855 a treaty of Simoda, and 1875 (treaty of St. Petersburg), the Japanese only asked the delimitation of the frontier between the two possessions at the extreme south of the island. In 1873 the Japanese Minister for Foreign Affairs, Soeissima, proposed to Russia to cede the Japanese part of the island in exchange for Russian neutrality during the war of conquest which they contemplated against Korea and finally in 1875 it was the Japanese who transferred the pourparlers regarding the island to St. Petersburg and brought them to a conclusion, receiving in return for their possessions in South Sakhalien, the Russian Kuriles."

NO PROTEST.
They never claimed they were forced to exchange. No one in Japan protested against this treaty, their fishing interests in the waters of the island having been fully protected. They then made no pretensions to colonization there, as they had not yet completed the colonization of the most northerly of their own group of islands—Hakkard. Instead of desiring to extend their colonizing efforts northward they had turned their eyes to the more alluring prospects to the west and south, Korea, Formosa and the Philippines. The claims to historical and national rights to the island are not therefore well founded.

SEEKING PROFIT.
The Japanese in a word are seeking to profit by their present success to completely and definitely assure their paramount position in the Far East. Sakhalien in their hands means Vladivostok, Russia's sole and insufficient base on the Pacific, at the mercy of Japan. Vladivostok could be attacked from three sides. Russia would no longer have the possibility of resisting Japan's encroachments. At her bidding she would be compelled to withdraw from her position in the Orient.

"Japan's claim to Sakhalien is readily comprehended. But it is impossible to understand the lack of foresight of American, France and even England, which do not seem to realize the impending and far-reaching consequences." PORTSMOUTH, N. H., August 18.—The peace conference adjourned at 3:45 p. m. today.

NO POISONED PIES AT FISHER'S BAKERY
OAKLAND, Cal., August 18, 1905. Editor TRIBUNE, Oakland, Cal.—Dear Sir: My attention has been called to an article which appeared in a local paper in which H. G. Happy, a carpenter, alleges that he ate a poisoned cake in my bakery about three weeks ago, and was seriously ill for several days. He also states that he got a piece of moulted cake in his lunch which I have been putting up for him, and further states that an employee of mine states that it is our custom to use old cakes and pies for lunches, of which we put up 75 or 80 each day for workingmen. The article is very ridiculous and I cannot see any reason for Mr. Happy making such assertions. As a matter of fact, he has not only been getting his lunch put up for a long time, but has been eating his dinner and breakfast at my restaurant and is still continuing to do so. If he had been poisoned by anything which had been put up in his lunch, he certainly would not continue to have his meals at my restaurant, and have his lunch put up by us. I do not believe he has missed a day without coming to my place and eating during the past three or four weeks.

As to lunches, I make a specialty of putting up a nice lunch for workingmen, and send out from 75 to 80 each day and have never had a complaint from anyone—not even Mr. Happy. As to my alleged statement that one of my employees stated that I used old cakes and pies, I will say that I will pay $100 forfeit to anyone who can prove that any one of my employees made such a statement, or that such is the truth. I can see no reason for Mr. Happy taking such action, for if he had ever been poisoned as stated, he would not continue to come to my place for his meals.

If the Board of Health desires to take the matter up, they are perfectly welcome to do so. I will take pleasure in assisting them in any way possible and afford every facility for making a thorough investigation.

Very respectfully,
B. BENDERBERGER,
Proprietor Fisher's Bakery, 866 Washington street.

OLD MAN TOOK A SHOT AT THE CATS

Declared That They Were Getting
All the Petting Around the House.

What is now known as the famous cat episode, in the trial of the contest over the will of the late Nelson Bump was detailed late yesterday evening by Mrs. Rena King, a niece of Mrs. Sarah L. Bump, and a strong witness for her aunt in the fight she is now making for a widow's share of the old man's estate. Owing to the rule invoked, that a widow's lips are sealed by the death of her husband and that she is not at liberty to tell what passed between her and her departed spouse, much that she might be able to tell or explain has to be brought out by others and as Mrs. King for a considerable period before her marriage lived at the Nelson home on Merritt Island she got a pretty good insight into the life and character of the old man whose will it is now the purpose of the widow to upset.

The cats referred to, Mrs. King stated, were her special pets while at the Nelson home. At this time her uncle by marriage was close on to his eightieth year and in his dotage. One day she and her aunt were fussing about the cat and her five kittens and the old man exclaimed "Well, I can't get any petting around here, and I'll be d—d if the cats do," and with this he took down his shot-gun and fired point blank at the old mother and her progeny which at that instant were drinking milk from a pan that had been set out for them. All of them the witness testified were hurt. The mother died and the kittens crawled off in the grass wounded and lived for some days although she fed them and did what she could for them. This Mrs. King stated was before he lost the use of his arms after a stroke of apoplexy he experienced in 1896.

Mrs. King testified that not long before his death while living at his home at 913 Chester street in this city he had completely lost his mind and that on several occasions he imagined himself in Sacramento and that his wife was keeping him a prisoner in a hotel there and asked her to take him back to his home at 913 Chester street when he was there all the while.

After Attorney M. C. Chapman and W. A. Dow had taken the witness care-fully over her testimony and she was turned over to the other side for cross-examination she was subjected to a rough cross-examination by Attorney Countryman who on one occasion got up so close to the witness that Attorney Chapman remarked "possibly the witness could answer better if he did not get quite so close to her," he then being right up to the chair in which she was sitting.

The first question Countryman put to her was to ask her what she was going to get for her testimony in case her aunt won her suit. The disclaimer having any interest in the case other than to tell what she knew about it. He then referred to a visit paid her by a man who attempted to talk with her about the case and to whom she told she would have nothing to say. "I had nothing to say to detectives. The man was a stranger and I am not in the habit of talking over my affairs with them," she replied.

"Is it not a fact that you and your aunt have been planning for years for this contest and have made notes of things that happened and that you are now testifying as a part of that program?" shouted Countryman.

"It is not," quickly replied the witness. The witness then told how her uncle used to swear at both herself and aunt and that she finally left the place and went away for six months on account of the way he talked to her. Even after she was married and she went to visit the place and held her child up to see, he asked her an insulting question and it was from many such occurrences that she concluded that he was not mentally right. She told of dark coverings which came from his having fallen in the river. He begged her not to tell of his having fallen. Mrs. Ivey said, left him with her aunt and went home and she cleaned off his clothes which were covered with mud.

Notwithstanding the severe cross-examination the witness kept her head and came out of it with her testimony pretty well intact and while answering very quickly, did not become entangled or confused. The examination is not yet concluded and the case will go on again next Tuesday.

BELIEVES HER SON THEY ARE AFTER KIDNAPPED DAMROSCH

MRS. JOSEPH VARGAS MAKES A
POLICE.

Mrs. Joseph Vargas of San Leandro yesterday asked the police of this city to help locate her 10-year-old son, Arthur C. Vargas, whom she believes has been kidnapped by a band of gypsies. The little fellow has been missing since last Sunday, and as a band of gypsies left San Leandro last Sunday the mother believes that her little son was kidnapped by them and is being held for a ransom. The police of all the adjoining towns have been notified to watch for the gypsies and make a close search for the missing boy. The gypsy band who are under suspicion were at San Leandro last week during the street fair, where they made considerable money telling fortunes.

Mrs. Vargas believes that because of the reputed wealth of her parents they stole the lad to get a large sum of money from them. The boy was seen about the camp on several occasions and had been warned by his parents to keep away from there.

TOOK DOCTOR'S NIGHT ROBE

DR. T. HOLDEN SAYS HE WAS ROBBED ON THE TRAIN.

Dr. T. Holden, who is paying a visit to friends at Fruitvale, reported to the police this morning that while on his way from San Francisco to the home of his host, a valise containing his night gown and other necessary articles of toilet was stolen. He lays the blame on a young man who sat behind him. "This young man is described as about five feet six inches tall, weighing 130 pounds, and dressed in a blue suit."

If the thief will return the tooth brush, night gown and the other articles needed for the physician's personal comfort, no questions will be asked. The valise was made of alligator skin.

SUGAR RATE WAR SOON TO END

NEW YORK, August 18.—News that the sugar rate war between Eastern, Western and Gulf line roads, which was proceeding to a harmonious settlement last week, is to be continued, was made public here today. The names of the dissenting railroads were not learned, but Eastern lines are understood to have sent many of the negative ballots.

LAWSON SUED FOR SIX MILLION

SENSATIONAL ACTION BROUGHT AGAINST HIM IN NEW YORK.

BOSTON, Mass., August 17.—A. C. Burrage, Thomas W. Lawson and about a dozen other defendants were sued by Paine Webber & Co. for the recovery of the possession of 70,000 shares of Copper Range Consolidated mining stock, or failing this, the plaintiff asks that Burrage and Lawson be compelled to pay over $6,000,000 cash, in addition to the expenses, which sum they are alleged to have realized from the fraudulent sale of 70,000 shares of Copper Range in violation of an agreement made in September, 1902.

The suit is the outcome of an allegation by Paine Webber & Co. that Burrage and Lawson have broken a pool of September, 1902, the other defendants named being innocent holders of a part of the pooled stock sold by Lawson and Burrage.

Paine Webber & Co. state that Lawson and Burrage cannot now return the 70,000 shares, and therefore they demand $6,000,000 instead.

THE SPORT OF KINGS.

And now the Cleveland harness races have been abandoned because pool selling was prohibited. They are like Hodge's razor, in the old rhyme, which was not made to shave, but to sell.—New York Tribune.

ELOPERS CAUGHT BY POLICE

Four Young People From Oakland Are Held at Santa Rosa.

Word has been received here by the police to the effect that Genevieve Hampshire, Margaret Mead, Joseph Leary, and Edward Webb, four elopers from this city, of an extremely tender age, had been intercepted by the police of Santa Rosa and were now on their way back to this city. The two girls are aged 12 and 13 years respectively, while their male companions boast of being each 14 years of age. All of the elopers reside in the vicinity of Eighteenth and Grove streets and were schoolmates together.

On Tuesday last the children decided that they would be happier if they traveled through life in pairs and planned an elopement. The boys after a diligent search for money obtained an amount of about $11. With this sum they purchased tickets for four and boarded the train for Santa Rosa, where one of the youths has relatives. When the parents of the girls learned of their absence they were much worried. A clew was obtained to the effect that the four had gone to Santa Rosa and the parents immediately got into communication with the police of that place. A dispatch from Santa Rosa says:

Marguerite Mead, Genevieve Hampshire, Joe Leary and Edward Webb of Oakland were taken into custody this morning by Chief of Police Severson. They ran away from their homes yesterday and came to this city, and Detective Lucas wired Chief Severson to intercept them, but they could not be found last evening.

The boys were loyal to the girls and steadily refused to tell the names of the girls, claiming they did not know their names. The quartet was found in a room of a lodging-house, but the boys claimed they were only calling on the girls and that they had slept in a room last night by their parents' permission. The landlady was introduced to the boys last night, one being presented as a brother and the other as a cousin. She and the officers believe that all four of the children occupied the room last night. Detective Lucas arrived on the afternoon train, and Chief Severson had the children at the depot, so they could take the returning train to their homes and not be compelled to remain overnight. Lucas declared that he specially desired to secure possession of the Mead girl to return her to her family. He instructed the Chief here, however, to hold all of the parties.

The local police have no information except that they were requested to locate the Mead girl by her parents. The elopement is said by the parents of all of the youngsters to be a youthful prank, inspired by what they deemed parental opposition.

HUME IS SUED FOR DAMAGES

Woman Says He Forcibly
Ejected Her From a Building.

PORTLAND, Ore., August 18.—R. D. Hume, the millionaire Rogue River cannery man, ex-member of the Oregon Legislature, is the defendant in damage suits just filed in the State Circuit Court at Gold Beach by E. B. Burns and wife.

The amount sought to be recovered is $125,000. Mr. Burns alleges that for more than two years past Hume has been trying to run him out of business and has committed many malicious acts against him and his wife.

In one suit against Hume Burns sets forth as a cause of action that in October, 1902, Hume falsely and maliciously caused his arrest on a charge of anchoring the stern wheel steamer Rogue River in the river bearing the same name and placing obstructions in the river fronting the tide banks owned by Hume.

Mrs. Nellie F. Burns has sued Hume for $50,000 because he caused her to be forcibly ejected from a building at Gold Beach in September, 1902. She avers that she was violently and brutally treated. The other suits filed bring the total of damages up to $125,000.

Hume and Burns are business rivals.

A roll call was ordered and the result of the voting will not be known until late in the day.

TWELVE DEAD IN WRECK

Eighty Colored Excursionists Are Still Reported Missing.

NORFOLK, Va., August 18.—Only twelve known dead had today been taken from the wreck of the Atlantic Coast line, though there are eighty of the colored excursionists yet missing. The probabilities are that the bodies of many of these will be found on the bottom of the river. A wrecking company and derrick raised two submerged cars, but as they did so the ends fell out of the cars, and what dead were there went to the bottom of the river with the debris.

The river is now being dragged and it is expected that a number of bodies will be taken from the water before night. The latest victims to be found are an unknown colored man and unknown colored woman. The only white persons known to be dead up to this time are W. E. Jolley, the promoter of the excursion, and his young nephew, Edward Forbes.

About sixty of the 169 excursionists have come to Norfolk, either slightly injured or bruised. There are twenty-three injured at the hospitals, with twelve known dead, which leaves between seventy and eighty of the excursionists yet missing.

The Atlantic Coast Line officials have given out no statement in the matter, but Cleveland Thompson, an eye witness, says that the small danger signal which was placed on the track to warn the approaching train that the draw was open, though formerly a red flag, had faded almost completely white.

The tug for which the draw was opened was just passing through when the train dashed into the water. The tug reversed her engines quickly and barely escaped being caught by the engine in its descent.

Cleveland Thompson declares that Engineer Reig remained by his engine up to the last, and did not jump, as first reported. Reig was badly injured about the head and body, and is now in the hospital. He may recover.

J. J. Thompson, aged sixty years, a farmer, and father of Cleveland Thompson, rushed with an axe to the scene, and, leaping twenty feet, landed on top of the second coach. He cut a hole in the top of the car and rescued thirty-five persons just before the car dropped into the water and became almost completely submerged.

At noon divers went to the bottom of the river at the scene of the wreck and found a carload of dead men, women and children, those being the victims in the first car behind the engine, whose bodies went into the river when the end of the car dropped out as it was raised by derricks this morning. Engineer Reig is seriously injured and his mind is not clear.

The work of raising the car load of dead bodies found in the river will begin at once.

It is now stated in Norfolk that the report that divers found a carload of bodies on the bottom of the river at the scene of the wreck is probably incorrect, though the statement may yet be verified.

The number of dead, including the two colored men taken from the wreck this morning, was placed by the railway officials at twelve. The belief, however, was expressed that more bodies will probably be found. The conductor of the wrecked train has made a statement that there were but eighty passengers in the forward two coaches, and all those who were in the second have been taken out.

SOLD PROPERTY TO THE MASONS

SAN FRANCISCO, August 18.—W. B. Bourn yesterday sold the northeast corner of Sutter street and Van Ness avenue to William H. Crocker, for the Scottish Rite Masons, for $130,000. The deal insures the building of a semi-circular structure on a site that during the past eight years has twice been considered in connection with notable building projects.

Colonel Fred Crocker bought the property as a site for the Masonic Temple, but it was not accepted. Upon his death the lot passed to his heirs, and nearly two years ago Mr. Bourn purchased it from the children for $110,000, intending it as a site for the proposed new University Club. His proposition was rejected, and he held the ground until yesterday, when he let it go at a profit of $20,000.

The Scottish Rite Masons voted for the purchase of the lot at a meeting on Tuesday night. Mr. Crocker is financing their enterprise, which involves the expenditure of nearly $1,000,000 for site and structure. That the building will be an imposing one, without saying, and architects will be immediately called upon to submit plans in competition. The transaction with Mr. Crocker will involve the sale of the Scottish Rite property on Post street, facing Union square, which is valued at $650,000. Bourn was represented by Hooker & Lent.

There is a vast difference between making your mark and making remarks.

CHAS. LANE TOTALLY BLIND

Well Known Mining Man
Has Suffered a Great Affliction.

SEATTLE, Wash., August 18.—In a letter to a friend in this city received yesterday, the wife of Charles D. Lane, writes that her husband, one of the best known mining men in California, and who, as president of the Wild Goose Mining Company, has done more than any one man towards the development of the Nome region, is totally blind. Mrs. Lane will bring her husband out on the next trip of the Oregon.

Mr. Lane last spring disposed of his interests in the Wild Goose Company to San Francisco interests and returned to Nome for the purpose of developing some of his individual properties. He has been in failing health for more than a year and complained greatly of his eyes when in this city in June en route north. Mr. Lane is best known on the Pacific Coast through his development of the famous Utica mine, which for years was one of the largest dividend payers in the West. His undertakings in Nome were of a colossal nature and almost always uniformly successful. He had endeared himself to hundreds of miners and prospectors in the North by his many acts of generosity, and it is said that no man in the territory ever appealed to him in vain for aid to either get out of the country or for assistance in eking an existence inside.

SOCIALISTS WERE ON DECK

COUNCIL DID NOT MEET AND SO THEY COULD NOT BE HEARD.

Six representatives of the Socialists appeared before the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee at the City Council last night to present the ideas of the form of an ordinance for the repeal of Ordinance No. 1836, which prohibits the holding of public meetings in any street, square, park or any other public place within the city limits. When the six representatives, who were Austin Lewis, W. V. Holloway, William McDevitt, Thomas Booth, H. H. Lillenthal and H. C. Tuck, arrived at the council chambers they found that no one was there.

A week ago last Tuesday the Socialists presented their petition through their spokesman W. V. Holloway, before the Council meeting, asking for the repeal of the ordinance, and were told to present the ordinance they wished inserted a week from the following Thursday at the meeting of the Council Committee, and this is what they undertook to do last night. The proposed ordinance provides for the repeal of the ordinance regulating the holding of public meetings in all public places within the five limits of the city. "The law," which is objected to, was approved in October, 1897.

The regular meeting of the Council Committee is held every Thursday evening, but on account of the meeting of the Board of Equalization the time of meeting was changed to Wednesday evening for the present week. Apparently, the Socialists had not taken notice of this fact.

In speaking of the matter last night one of the Socialists said: "We have refrained from going on the street since presenting our petition to the Council but it appears that prospects of an amicable settlement are as far away as ever. Although we are as anxious to avoid a fight as we are ready for it, we shall continue our struggle for rights of free speech upon the streets. This is the feeling of the committee and of us all."

SUMMER HEALTH RISKS.

Dr. Andrew Wilson writes: "The laws of the increased risks to health during the summer months: 'The warm season causes the great army of microbes to breed and multiply in thick profusion. With this increase in the number of our microscopic foes, our risks proportionately enlarge. Think for a moment of the tampering of food. A food which in the winter will keep for days may spoil in as many hours in summer. Injuries to food are not always easy of detection. This is why in summer we may read of cases of food poisoning, often fatal, caused by the consumption of articles which were apparently sound. The changes produced are of such a subtle nature that at first they are not realized. The food appears fresh and healthy, it is dangerous. Usually it is made so because it has been kept in unsanitary surroundings. In preparing the case, let me add, with canned foods. They are sound enough and wholesome enough, but when the cans are opened the food is safe to consume by certain foods as quickly as possible."

"I have often heard the question asked, why, if decomposition of food is a barrier to its use, should we eat high game. I reply, cases of game poisoning are not unknown, but in ordinary practice the game is kept so long that a first set of dangerous microbes producing decomposition has disappeared and is replaced by other and harmless ones. In other words, game eaten in the morning, later on as a rule, it is not injurious. Milk of all kinds is liable to absorb injurious matters. Its very nature, as a semi-vital kind of food, predisposes it to ready microbial attack. It is a breeding ground selected with avidity by certain microbes. Medical officers will tell us of a veritable slaughter of the innocents in our cities and cities every summer in the shape of a big death rate of infants under 1 year old."

flaps beneath lid, extra reinforcements—a first class travel-

But we are price-cutters; and besides, we want to more fully have described for seven dollars.

well known brands that have al-them for 10 cents and are still doing so. This saves a man 20

The Cedula is a nicely shaped cigar, it's agreeable to the fin-cigar—you appreciate its smoke even when another fellow is smoking it. It is a carefully filled cigar, draws easily and pleasantly, but does not burn the tongue. It is a genuine Havana cigar, superior to many that are sold at 10 cents.

FOUND A FIRE
IN THEIR HOME

On returning from Idora Park last night with his wife and family, George Hutto found that during their absence the walls of the house, damaging the walls of the house and dangering the life of the household goods.
The fire was discovered by a passer-by who turned in an alarm from box 13 at the corner of West and Thirty-fourth streets. When the Fire Department arrived the fire had worked its way into the woodwork and it was necessary for the firemen to chop into the wall before the flames could be extinguished.
When the fire went to Idora Park they left a fire burning in the gas range and it is thought that some way it spread to the wall. The loss is estimated at about $700.

DECLARES HE WANTED TO MURDER HIS WIFE

Great Sensation is Caused by the Arrest of a London Financier.

LONDON, August 18.—A great sensation has been created by the arrest of Hugh Watt, a financier and formerly a member of Parliament, for the charge of attempting to procure a private detective to assist in the murder of his former wife. Detective Marshall testified in a Police Court today that Watt offered him $5,000 if he would induce the woman to come to Watt's flat, where he proposed to kill her by the administration of chloroform, and then to remove the small of chloroform with peppermint. Watt was re-mandered for trial on bail of $3,000. The police found both chloroform and peppermint in Watt's apartments.

Watt was in the divorce court some years ago when his wife sued for a divorce, the co-respondent being Lady Violet Beauchamp, daughter of the late Lord and Lady Roden, and the divorced wife of Sir Reginald Beauchamp. Watt has since married Lady Violet Beauchamp.

Since the granting of the divorce
Watt and his former wife have been in the law courts regarding their marriage settlements, and much bitterness has resulted from this litigation. A couple of weeks ago the parties appeared in a Police Court, Watt charging his former wife with having assaulted and violently ejected him from her house, where he went to try and secure an agreement.

BRITT BACK READY FOR FIGHT

Jimmy Britt arrived from Truckee yesterday accompanied by Tim Kreel and Sam Berger. He was looking in the best condition and said the weighed about 142 pounds which is a desirable weight for him to enter upon his three weeks training.

Discussing the coming battle he said: "The public has given me many tasks to perform each one apparently harder than the other. The latest is the forty-five round proposition with Nelson. I expect to pass this safely and I hope they don't want me to take on Jim Jeffries next. There will be no trouble about a referee as any man suitable to the general public will be suitable to me. Every man I ever fought picked the referee. I have no objections to an Eastern man but he must be impartial. There are a number of writers in the East who have been roasting me and I would not want one of them to act on this occasion. The fight will really referee itself. This is to be a battle to the death and it is a supreme confidence in my ability to defeat Nelson."

Additional zest is added to this fight as many people seem to think I will tire before the end of the journey. I have tested myself and I know just what I can do. Nelson is only human and if I hit him on the nose it will bleed. If I hit him on the jaw he will go out like any other man. I am his master and I am not settling down to training training over what he is out. I will be no fighter who depends entirely on brute strength can beat me. I outclass Nelson in every department of the game and I know I outclass him in gameness. I will cut loose this time and show the public something they have never seen before. I have been winning in the past by what I said to but by what I could. Some people think I was forced into this match. There was only one thing that forced me into it and that was the coin I know I will win by beating Nelson." Britt went across the bay with Nat Goodwin who went East sorrowfully. He opens his season in New York on September 6 and says he would gladly give up the receipts of the biggest week of his engagement to see the fight. Coffroth has entertained several parties from the Native Sons, who desire the date of the fight to be changed from Admission Day, but he has not yet given his decision. It is not likely that the date will be changed.

LIBERTY DRAWS GREAT CROWDS

"HEARTS COURAGEOUS" PROVES TO BE A GREAT ATTRACTION AT LOCAL THEATER.

"Hearts Courageous" was again given at Ye Liberty Playhouse last night before a large and appreciative audience. The play is a dramatization by Ramsay Morris and Franklin Fyles of Hattie Berrill Rives celebrated novel of the same title.

The play met with the approbation of the audience receiving many curtain calls and applause. It is thrilling in plot, and has picturesque scenery.

The characters in the play all take off their respective parts excellently. James Neil played the leading role that of Louis Armand Marquis de la Tourie, and handled his part well. Edythe Chapman Neil scored another success in the part of Anne Tilton. Her acting and womanly grace captured the audience right from the start. Francis Sloan gave a winning impersonation as Betsy Byrd. Franklin Underwood rendered the character of Captain Jarret very well.

Frank McVickers as Lord Dunmore, and Reginald Travers as Patrick Henry gave able renderings of their respective characters. The other members of Bishop's players all gave clever interpretations of their respective roles.

"Hearts Courageous" will be the attraction at Ye Liberty for the rest of the week including the matinees on Saturday and Sunday.

SAN BERNARDINO, August 18—Alphilia Smith, the twelve-year-old daughter of Peter Smith of this city recently from Boston, found herself alone friendless, at Cochise, A. T. yesterday having been put off the train because she had lost her ticket. Her father, who had transported her and alone set forth from Boston with her transportation paid to San Bernardino. All went well until just before Cochise was reached when the conductor demanded her ticket which she had lost. She was on a new division and the conductor not knowing how to handle the child's plight, she rushed into the depot where J. J. Rath, a kind-hearted justice of the peace, noticed her and took her to his home. Later he telegraphed to the girls' father, who had transportation for her wired back, and the child arrived here this afternoon and hysterically threw herself into her father's arms.

Another Feature of Reclamation Bill

We have received the following letter from a substantial and thoroughly reputable citizen and property owner of Yolo county, setting forth some features of the swamp land reclamation bill deserving of public attention:

Editor OAKLAND TRIBUNE: I have just read an extract from your editorial on swamp lands and the iniquitous bill passed by the last Legislature, called River Improvement and Drainage Bill. While you are right in your conclusions that it is an effort to reclaim private property at the expense of the Government and State and taxpayers generally, you have overlooked the great grab of the bill. The bill provides raising twenty-four million dollars, one-half of which sum comes out of the taxpayers of the State and general Government, and the other half chiefly out of the lands of certain land owners, described in the reclamation district named in the bill. While the swamp lands of the Sacramento valley are included in this description over one-half the land so described is not swamp land at all, but high aerable lands occupied and owned by a settlement of thrifty farmers, with their wives and families, and a large, well-cultivated section of over one hundred miles long, with habitations occupied by honest cultivators of the soil, good houses, barns, orchards, vineyards and thrifty settlements, which will have to pay the larger part of the half of expense, attending reclamation while the swamp lands proper pay but a minimum of the cost of reclamation. For instance, the bill provides the assessment of all the lands in the proposed reclamation district shall be made from the assessment roll of the State and counties in which such lands are situated.

Now this assessment roll calls for a valuation of nine-tenths of the amount, to be collected from high and dry lands that need no reclamation. As these high land farmers are assessed at from 40 to 75 dollars per acre for their lands, besides heavy assessments for their improvements thereon, while the swamp lands proper are assessed at only from $1.25 to $5 per acre and no improvements whatever thereon, thus showing that the swamp lands pay comparatively nothing for reclaiming their lands, while the owners of adjoining lands, which is mainly Government property sold to actual settlers by the United States and occupied by these settlers, will have to stand the burden of taxation to reclaim these swamp lands, which are now practically valueless, and which no well-informed man believes ever will be reclaimed by the system as proposed in this bill.

In fact, the bill is a cooked-up scheme to reclaim swamp lands at the expense of others than the owners and is positively impractical. It was got up by a few grafters to get control of twenty-four million dollars, and spend as little as possible of this sum on real reclamation, and the owners of real swamp lands are being hoodwinked into the belief that their lands will be reclaimed without their paying for it. To accomplish this, three hoosiers from the Yazoo Valley were imported into this State under the claim that they were "eminent engineers." Loud praise of their eminence was announced and they, fulfilling instructions, endorsed a grab plan already worked out to raise a grand corruption fund of twenty-four million dollars and rob the owners of nearly a million acres of high aerable land of their homes and possessions, and drive them and their families homeless and homeless out of doors, to satisfy the greed of some unscrupulous land grabbers.

I do not desire, Mr. Editor, to have this for publication, as I am a private citizen, but I simply wish to thank you for your bold and honest expression of disapproval of this outrageous scheme. Most of the California papers have given the scheme their approval; others are too timid to expose this gigantic steal.

The name of our correspondent is withheld in obedience to his request, as the letter was not written for publication, but we print what he has to say because the public ought to know it. We have heretofore adverted to the manifest injustice of including in the district to be reclaimed, and saddling them with the cost of reclamation, lands lying above the flood mark and already in profitable cultivation. Such injustice is in the nature of spoliation. Why the State and Federal governments should pay two-thirds the cost of reclaiming land owned by private persons which will be worth, when reclaimed, several times the total cost of reclamation, has never been satisfactorily explained. But even if that proposition be admitted for the sake of argument, the scheme to make lands already reclaimed bear a portion of the one-third cost allotted to the owners of the swamp land to be reclaimed, is absolutely without the color of justification. It is virtual confiscation by legislative enactment because it taxes citizens who derive no benefit or compensation whatever, for the enrichment of private persons. If the proposed reclamation scheme will create at a cost of $24,000,000 a property worth above $100,000,000, why should the State or the national government be asked to contribute two-thirds or any part of the cost of reclamation? In any event, there is no reason or justice in including uplands under tillage adjacent to the swamp lands in the reclamation district.

Yesterday the Enquirer printed the following paragraph: "In Alameda yesterday an aged woman was run down by a milk wagon on the public streets. Following the line of argument pursued by some in favor of ruling bicyclists off the sidewalks altogether because there are careless riders, milk wagons should be denied the use of the streets in Alameda." Our contemporary reasons that because careless drivers occasionally run down pedestrians in the streets, where vehicles belong, bicyclists should be permitted to run pedestrians down on the sidewalks where vehicles do not belong. Its logic would indicate a belief that the Alameda milk wagon should have been on the sidewalk instead of in the street. But whether the pedestrian gets run down on the sidewalk or in the street he gets no sympathy from the Enquirer.

The Woodland Democrat says THE TRIBUNE has made a fierce attack on some of its contemporaries. It is a fierce statement. Our esteemed Woodland contemporary might try its pretence hand at stating a simple fact in accordance with the rule of logic and then repeating it without twisting it out all resemblance to its original form. The witness who volunteers to give incriminating testimony against someone else should be able to tell his story twice without material alteration. Above all, when he states something as a positive fact, he should not attempt to prove it by saying he inferred it to be the fact. The inferences of a suspicious and censorious mind are no more valid testimony than a sow's ears are silk purses.

The announcement that John D. Rockefeller is giving away money faster than he is making it is ominous. Is the price of oil to be given another boost?

The Nevada man who discovered a volcano in eruption through his horse stepping into a stream of molten lava, which he mistook for mud, deserves something better than a chromo. Perhaps it would be a good idea to duck him in his stream of alleged lava, along with the correspondent who reported that the heads of the University of Nevada are out with a pack of bloodhounds trying to tree the volcano.

Editorials and Larcenies.

Recently the Berkeley Gazette, which prints some excellent editorials on occasion, hazarded the statement that editorials are little read nowadays. It failed, however, to mention the fact that newspapers which scamp the editorial page do their editorializing in their news columns, indulging in argumentation, inferences, deductions and conclusions in what should be an uncolored impartial narration of fact. They do their editorial work in disguise and under false pretenses. Naturally, with such newspapers, the editorial proper is a sickly, flabby, lifeless thing that no more interests the public than a dead oyster. It is to be observed, notwithstanding, that the editorial columns of newspapers which discuss current topics and issues with vigor, freedom and intelligence are invariably read with interest by the most intelligent classes in the community.

However, it was not of this that we particularly intended to speak. It is the homage to the editorial that the plagiarist and literary larcenist pays that we proposed to allude to. Some scolded editors who sneer at the editorial have no scruple about pilfering editorials from other journals. They steal with brazen audacity and with equal impudence attempt to palm off their larcenies as original products of their own brain-shops. We have in mind two or three dailies in California that make a regular business of stealing editorials. A dozen others crib pungent paragraphs in the most matter-of-fact fashion. They do not seem to realize that they advertise their lack of ability and respect for the rights of others to every well-informed exchange reader who looks at their pages. They should know that their journals are objects of contempt in the world of journalism, and they must finally learn that their pilfering and plagiarism sooner or later become known to their own readers, who thenceforth lose all respect for them.

Originality is the very life of an editorial. An opinion is not entitled to consideration unless it is really an opinion. Once its claim to being a bona fide conclusion is established, it is then entitled to consideration on its intrinsic merits. It may be good, bad or indifferent, but at least it is not an idea boldly stolen from some one else or a revamping of what some one else has better said. The matter may be good and the reasoning bad. The premise may be faulty but the conclusion sound and honest. It may strike an unpopular note yet be the expression of courageous dissent from generally accepted views. Occasionally it voices a protest against the social organization so virile, so keen and so charged with honest conviction that it provokes interest and claims respect. Sometimes a barren conclusion is reached by sophistry so clever and rhetoric so brilliant that the article is worthy of study for its style and ingenuity. Again, a proposition may be laboriously hammered out, but the work is done so thoroughly when finished that nothing further is left to be said.

Moreover, the editorial—if original, as it should be in the very nature of things—expresses not only a view but indicates a viewpoint, a state of mind, and a mental attitude which is often instructive and illuminative, even when the subject is not treated with conspicuous grasp or penetration. But if the editorial be cribbed from some other publication it is no more an evidence of standpoint and mental attitude than it is of thought, erudition or conclusion. It is as if a man had stolen a picture and labeled it as the work of his own hands. He may be a discriminating thief, but the quality of his plunder does not mitigate his offense or give his larceny the indispensable requisite of character.

A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says he has discovered, after investigation, that the vast majority of persons who apply to the courts for divorce were married by civil magistrates. He declares that only a small proportion of those married by the sacrament of the church get divorced. If this be a fact it is worthy of attention. It possesses a significance which cannot be ignored by sociologists in their study of the divorce question. As the Catholic Church does not recognize divorce at all, it is but natural that members of the Roman communion should rarely appeal to the courts for a severance of the marriage bond, but if marriages celebrated by Protestant clergymen are more binding on conduct and conscience than marriages celebrated by civil officers, the fact is pregnant with a meaning which may not be misunderstood. It is prima facie evidence that the ceremony celebrated by a clergyman possesses a binding force far greater than the ceremony celebrated by a Justice of the Peace. In the first case it carries the obligation of a sacrament which is lacking in the other.

The United Railroads of San Francisco employs a spelling conductor on the observation car that takes sightseers on daily trips around the city who deserves a long, long vacation unless he speaks by order of his employees. It is the habit of this voracious person to intersperse his orations to passengers with irrelevant and untruthful remarks about Oakland. If the weather be bad, which is not particularly unusual in San Francisco, he is wont to say it is due to the fact that the wind is blowing from Oakland, where it is always cold, raw and foggy. In short, he ascribes all the shortcomings of the San Francisco climate to Oakland, which he describes as a bleak, dreary, windy place, inhabited mostly by cranks and jays. If this conductor gives out this sort of talk on his own motion he should be disciplined. If he is "knocking" Oakland by order of his superiors then it is high time the citizens of this city devoted some attention to the United Railroads. If that corporation has instructed its employees to malign the climate and inhabitants of Oakland, it is engaged in a very contemptible business. If not, the speller on the observation car should be called down.

A Kentucky Judge has decided that the pea-and-shell game is a game of chance. That jurist ought to take a day off and try a few throws against the game by way of testing his judicial knowledge.

Governor Pardee did a timely thing at Portland by puncturing the demagoguery of the Governors of Oregon and Washington on the Chinese question. The California executive remarked that we are straining at a gnat on the Pacific Coast while swallowing a camel hump and all on the Atlantic side. Every month we get a vast swarm of filthy, ignorant, debased and brutalized aliens from Europe, and the horde of ill-smelling, ill-favored newcomers is swelling rapidly. Some of them who have barely got on speaking acquaintances with our laws, language and institutions are howling loudest about Japanese and Chinese immigration and treating the invasion from Southern and Eastern Europe as quite the thing. As Congressman Knowland says, we must put up the bars on both sides of the continent if the character and intelligence of the American nation are not to be lowered and corrupted by the enormous infusion of ignorance and squalor now being belched, like a foul vomit, on these shores.

AN EMPTY ROMANCE
There was an elopement in Aitchison the other night which ended in an original way. A girl of 16 and her lover decided that they would marry and run off. To add to the romance she climbed out of the bedroom window and made her way to the gate, where she was met by the young man. It was their intention to fly to Missouri. It was a bright, clear moonlight night, and they could see several miles as plainly as day. They crossed the bridge, and though the girl kept turning back anxiously there was no one in pursuit. "It is strange," she said; "I made a lot of noise on purpose to awaken papa." She was so disappointed at this first break in her romance that she compelled the young man to turn back. Having the father in hot pursuit is half the joy, and she felt cheated. When they returned she found a bundle on the front gate with this note attached: "You forgot your kitchen dresses, and here they are." The girl climbed in the window again and her romance was ended.—Aitchison Globe

TRUSTEES IN SESSION AT HAYWARDS

MAYOR CHARLES W. HEYER OF HAYWARDS.

Would Not Allow H. W. Meek to Take His Name Off Petition to the Board.

HAYWARDS, August 18.—H. W. Meek's letter to the Board of Trustees of this place was read at the Board meeting last Wednesday evening and ordered filed. Mr. Meek alleged that the facts had been misrepresented to him when his signature was asked to the petition to re-grade and macadamize Castro street. He said that he had signed the paper under the impression that he would have nothing to pay if the improvement were made. Since then, he said, he found that he would be obliged to pay 90 cents per foot of his frontage along Castro street for the curbing and gutter. Altogether it would amount to more than $1000 to be paid by the Meek estate.

When the communication was read at the meeting, Mayor C. W. Heyer at once declared that they were not true. He said that he had told Mr. Meek that the town would pay for the new macadam, and had not misled him about the paying for the curb and gutters. He said that in the presence of the Trustees Mr. Meek had acknowledged that he would have to pay for these and said that he did not mind the expense.

The request of Mr. Meek that his name be withdrawn from the petition was not granted by the Board. No further action was taken in the matter beyond filing the letter.

For the third time in the last few months the Trustees passed a resolution to grade and macadamize Castro street from the northwesterly limits of the town to the center of D street. The first time the company refused to take the contract after it had been awarded, the second time the town printer had omitted a portion of the notice to bidders.

Despite the delays and annoyances the Trustees are determined that the improvement shall be made. If it can be brought about in no other way, the town will grade and macadamize two blocks along the distance at its own expense and force the property owners to pay for attending to that portion between the improved places. This can be done by virtue of a recent act of the legislature.

Charles Schilling, the Town Marshal, was instructed to refuse any more requests for liquor licenses if brought to him. It was informally stated at the meeting that two more saloons were being started in town, and the Trustees think there are enough already.

DRUID'S DANCE

Lodge Entertains Friends at Elmhurst.

ELMHURST, August 18.—Druidic Circle No. 18 entertained its friends last night at an informal social in Blackman's Hall. It was the monthly entertainment of the lodge and was a success in every way. A supper was served and the guests enjoyed a few hours of dancing afterward. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rodger played the violin and piano for the dancers.

Following are the names of those on the committee which prepared the entertainment: Mrs. C. S. Alvord, chairman, Mrs. R. B. Rodger, and Mrs. H. A. Gramer.

THE COMPANIONS.
Grand officers of the Companions of the Forest are to make their official visit to the Elmhurst Circle early next month. September 9 has been set as the date for the affair, and the local members are hastening to prepare to entertain their guests. # MORE KICKS AGAINST RUBBER COMPANIES

STREUBENVILLE, O., August 18.—Eight suits of a sensational character have been filed in court here, by Edward Nicholson and others of this city against the Vera Cruz Development Company of Canton, O., and its officers, directors and special agents, alleging that fraudulent representations had been made to induce them to purchase interests in the company and that the acts of the defendants were part of a scheme to induce the plaintiffs to purchase shares in the Esmeralda Rubber Plantation, located in Mexico.

Twenty-one liquor licenses are now in force, and the population of Haywards is less than that of San Leandro, which has but seventeen.

An ordinance is pending whereby the number of licenses which may be granted is limited to twenty. This has been backed by the saloon men themselves, who desire no more competition.

Preparations are being made by the new Eden Aerie of Eagles for the initiation of a large class of novices. The lodge has a number can be brought in at the meeting next Wednesday evening. The drill team is making splendid progress and can put the candidates through the degree with neatness and dispatch.

Refreshments will be served and a general good time enjoyed next Wednesday whether the initiation takes place or not.

EDDIE SMITH SCORES THE BASEBALL GAMBLERS

BY EDDIE SMITH.

In stopping the hand-books at the baseball park in San Francisco the managers have done the wisest thing that has been done by them this season. The national game that we have no longer cherish as our own was slowly but surely becoming corrupted, and it certainly would not have been long before the game would have no attendance, with the exception of the gamblers.

One of the best-paying leagues in the United States six years ago was the Texas League, until it opened up the parks to the gamblers. Then stories began to float around that this or that man or the umpire was fixed, and in a short time the attendance dropped off to such an extent that the league had to give up the struggle. For years baseball was dead in San Francisco, and it was brought about by gambling. Not long ago Pitcher Hodson, who was pitching in the Pacific Northwest League that went defunct, told us that it was the continual kicking about this and that player being fixed, not to say anything of what was said of the umpires, that killed the game.

Things in this league are not at the best at the present time, and the league managers should be trying to elevate the game instead of allowing a few that wish to make a living by selling pools to ruin it.

At the final games of the first half between Tacoma and San Francisco the betting would one day have Tacoma favorite and the next day San Francisco would be on the long end. The tips flew thick and fast about the games being fixed, and in one in particular the tip went out that Egan, McLaughlin and Graham were out to lose the game for Tacoma. Brown was pitching for the visitors and holding the locals down well. In one inning the San Francisco had a man on third and one on second, with two out. The batter had two balls and two strikes. Graham wished to speak to Brown and called him from the pitcher's box. The Friscoes claimed a balk and Umpire Perrine allowed it, thus scoring a man. After this happened it was amusing to see the number of wise nods and winks that the wise ones passed to one another, and it would have been impossible to convince one of them that Graham did not throw the game, although he is one of the fairest and most gentlemanly players in the league.

The Seattle Times also aroused a lot of suspicion by saying that Oakland would lose the majority of the two teams in the Friscoes in order that when Tacoma came to play the final the two teams would be so close together that the interest in the games would make a record-breaking week for attendance. The betting certainly must have been influenced by this talk, for it was almost impossible to find any one to bet on Oakland. When the poolrooms ran openly in San Francisco and the betting on prize-fights was heavy there were rumors of fake at all lights, and no doubt a great many of them were fixed, but now that there is not much betting one seldom hears the old cry of fake, and there has been no real evidence of a fixed fight for years. This is because there is not enough money to pay the fighters to fake. A baseball player makes for a salary, and for that reason the public, who are always anxious to think some one dishonest other than themselves, think that it is easy to buy the players. There can be no doubt that the things were not stopped any too soon, and it is the wish of all real lovers of the game that the managers keep the hand-books closed.

WILL PLAY AGAINST LOCAL AND EASTERN BALL TEAMS

The Reliance Athletic Club's proposed football team is getting to be very much of a reality and with the lapse of a few days its members are likely to be seen practicing and getting into shape for the coming fall and winter's contests.

If the present plans are carried out, the eleven will meet all of the coast college elevens that can be induced to meet the clubmen and if any of the Eastern teams come this way they also doubtless will lock horns with the Oaklanders.

In fact, the organization of this team makes it possible for the Easterners to come west. The latter are always anxious to come but the financial question usually interferes and if a chance for another game is thus provided the difficulties are thus at least partially smoothed away.

Those who are fathering the plan for a club team held an enthusiastic meeting at the club parlors this week and mapped out a plan of action. There are a number of excellent players, some outsiders, who are talking of joining the institution and their coming will add the material needed to make a strong aggregation of pigskin kickers.

The club already has a number of good men who will line up in an attempt to make the team and carry the colors to victory, so with the addition of the new players who are expected to unite with the others there should be no lack of material.

Among those who are down for the tryouts and who probably will make the eleven are Bramhall, who was with Oakland High School last year; Hampton, Boek, Anloft, Guy Jacobus, Locke, Wiley, Rowland, Ed Marshall, Billy La Rue and Livingston, also a former high school player. The juniors were also to meet this week to arrange for a team, but have been unable to get together so far. They will hold a meeting in a few days and begin practice next week.

FANS WILL WELCOME THEIR OLD-TIME FAVORITE CATCHER

Matt Stanley Will Stop Leather.

"Matt" Stanley, Oakland's backstop, who with Jimmy Byrnes will exchange places behind the bat, is a favorite with the fans. "Matt" has not been seen around the bay cities since the Sacramento team retired from the league. He has been playing with Spokane for the past few years. "Matt" is playing fine ball and his throwing to bases is very good. The Oakland fans are glad to have gentlemanly "Matt" with them, and join in wishing him the best of success.

CLUB TO GIVE SOCIAL DANCE

FRUITVALE, August 18.—The Fruitvale Athletic Club will give its first grand entertainment and dance tomorrow evening at Blackman's Hall on East Fourteenth street. The talent for the evening will all be local.

INDOOR MEET WILL BE HELD.

On the third Thursday in September the Pacific Athletic Association will meet and discuss the holding of an indoor athletic meet at Mechanic's Pavilion. This will, in all probability, take place in the latter part of October. It will consist of foot racing, shot putting, high and broad jumps, and wrestling contests also.

The indoor championship will be contested for at this time.

MATT STANLEY, the Oakland Back-Stop.

RELANCE FENCERS ARE READY TO MEET ALL OPPONENTS

Among the various departments represented in the Reliance Athletic Club, the organization has occasion to be proud of none more than the fencing club.

This feature of the club is not as large as some of the others, but it contains many enthusiasts and, what is more to the point, more than one man who can hold his own with almost anyone who can be found in this part of the country.

Secretary Emil Fritsch is the instructor in the fencing class. He is proud of his pupils and takes no pains to conceal the fact. Mr. Fritsch declares that he has two men in his ranks whom he will match with anyone on the coast. In fact, these two have for some time stood ready to meet anyone around here in a fencing bout and they are desirous to challenge any amateur in the State of California.

These two men are Dr. S. A. Hackett and C. Bradley Head. The former is a well known dentist of this city and the latter is a student at the University of California, and resides in Oakland. Both men are extremely clever with the sword and foils and many a hot encounter have they had together while pursuing their favorite sport at the club's gymnasium.

Dr. Hackett is a pupil of Tronchet, of the Olympic Club, while Mr. Head received much of his knowledge of the game from an associate of Rondel, the well-known authority on the art of fencing.

Mr. Fritsch learned much of what he knows of fencing while in St. Louis some years ago. He has been fencing instructor at the Reliance Club for about two years.

Mr. Head is a bet a young man of about 22 years and Dr. Hackett is not many years his senior.

A few other members of the fencing class are Howard Bliss, W. D. Peasley, Charles Harvey, Eric Humphrey, Allen Terick, L. Jennings, L. A. Casavant, R. W. Doud and L. C. Dale.

The class meets on Thursday evening of each week.

FOOTBALL CLUBHOUSE TO BE A SOCIAL CENTER

The Oakland Hornets (Association) Football Club has planned a banquet in conjunction with the annual business meeting to be held on Saturday evening, August 19. This meeting is considered by some of the members to be one of the most important ever held by the club, and it plans to develop, should raise the playing standing, of the famous Corinthians of England.

For some time the old Oakland Club has topped the list in point of registered members and last season nearly proved the strongest in talent, missing the championship cup, after some remarkably exciting bouts, by one point.

From 1889 to 1892 the club was known as the Oakland Y. M. C. A. Football Club, then, until 1903, as the Oakland Football Club. In 1903, when entering the league competition, the name was changed to Oakland Hornets Football Club, and now there is some talk of changing the name to the Athletics.

The people who come back from Klondike testify to the fact that no native bald heads are there. The evidence is that the cold climate kills the germs that eat the hair off at the root. Lieutenant Perry, who went to the Arctic Regions, gives the same evidence. Newbro's Herpicide has the same effect as the cold climate. It kills the germ that eats the hair off at the roots, and the hair grows again. Herpicide is the first hair remedy built upon the principle of destroying the germ that eats the hair off. Its phenomenal sale demonstrates the correctness of the scalp germ theory. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Michigan. Downman & Company, Special Agents.

BARRY TRAINS HARD FOR FIGHT

Dave Barry put on the gloves with George Lange, Dick Hyland, Alex. Greggans and Harry Foley yesterday and after he had boxed three rounds with each of these ring celebrities he was fresh and breathing easily, showing the excellent condition he is in.

After the boxing Dave did a lot of tugging with Lange and then took a huge sledge hammer and swung it for more than twenty minutes. The hammer work strengthens the shoulders, arms and back and Barry wishes to develop these muscles for his intended to carry Tommy Burns at a last clip when they meet on the first night.

Another line of exercise the Irish lad is fond of and which he takes each day soon after lunch is boat rowing. Dave goes out on the bay for a mile or two and he is becoming quite an expert oarsman.

This constant pulling in the water is a great stunt for a fighter who does plenty of close infighting and it is at this line that Barry shines. He says he will beat Tommy Burns by sticking in close to him and walloping away at short range. Dave never appeared to be better than at the present time and it is safe to say he will give Burns all there is coming to him.

Rheumatism. When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan Prop. Sullivan House, Reno, O. T., writes, June 6, 1905: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c. 50c. and $1.00. Sold by Wishart Drug Store.

HORSES SELDOM WIN THE SAME RACE TWICE

BY THE SAUNTERER.

Molly Brann's feat of winning the Delaware Handicap twice in successive years is one of rare occurrence in connection with the history of any stake of similar character. In fact, none of the more important handicaps is marked by a similar occurrence, although it is not for lack of trying.

Sir Walter, one of the gamiest horses that ever wore a bridle, ran third to Dr. Rice and Henry F. Meyers in the Brooklyn Handicap of 1884. In the Brooklyn Handicap of 1885 he was again third, this time to Hornpipe and Lazarus. Not to be denied, he tried it again in 1886 and won, with Clifford second and St. Max third. For the same race he ran third in 1887 and won in 1888. He ran third in 1889 and won in 1890 and second in 1891 and 1892. Major Dome ran second in 1885 and third in 1886. Lamplighter was third in 1892 and 1893.

At Washington Park, in the Wheeler Handicap, Yo Tambien ran third to Morello and Harry F. Meyers in 1904. In 1905 he won the race from Tyro and Wildwood. In 1906 Pink Coat was beaten a nose by The Roman in 1904. In 1905 he won by a nose from Advance Guard in 1904. In 1906 he won by a nose from Advance Guard in 1904. ## YOUNG SOCIALIST COMMITTS SUICIDE

NEW YORK, August 18.—Joseph Uhalt, formerly a New Orleans druggist, is dying in a hospital here from self-inflicted stab wounds. He was found yesterday in a Central Park drive. Beside him lay a new hunting knife. Uhalt, who is 30 years old, is said to have come to New York in the hope of securing a publisher for a book he had written of Socialism. Failing of his purpose, he sought a position as a magazine editor, but without success. He has a wife and two small children in New Orleans.

A NUMBER OF PRETTY AFFAIRS
PLANNED FOR LATE AUGUST.

The first week in September is crowded with wedding dates, and among the most important of these is the marriage of Miss Aida Layman and Edward Hall Dodge, which has been announced for Wednesday, September 6.

Miss Carmelita Selby, of San Francisco, and Frank Hanford Johnson, will marry September 6, and leave for an extended honeymoon in Europe.

Next week there is the wedding of Miss Charlotte Lally and Arthur Kelley to claim the attention of society. The marriage will be solemnized Wednesday, August 23, and the arrangements are to be for a simple ceremony. The bride will have a quartette of attendants, including Miss Evelyn Hussey, Miss Kittie Kutz, Miss Norma Castle and Miss Muriel Kelley.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Florine Jullierat and Harry M. Gasner, which will take place Thursday, August 31, at the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church, where the bride has been leading contralto in the choir. A large number of invitations have been sent out for the pretty event.

HOME WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Cora Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Berkeley, to J. Henry Hansen of San Francisco will take place next Sunday at the bride's home on Delaware street.

BIG "C" TO BE FIXED TOMORROW

BERKELEY, August 18.—Upon the entrance of the class of '09 into the University, it will be given the custody of the big C on Charter hill. In order that the emblem may be turned over in good condition to the incoming class, the men of '08 will spend a short time tomorrow morning repairing the damage done by the recent attempt to blow up the letter. All the material is now on the ground, and as the damage done is not so great as was at first believed, it is expected that no difficulty will be met in quickly restoring the C in good condition.

MERCURY WORSE THAN THE DISEASE

The effects of Mercury and Potash are worse than the effects of Contagious Blood Poison, for which these minerals are generally used. They cannot cure the disease, and in addition set up a poison of their own, producing dyspepsia, by drying up the gastric juices, salivation, sores, mercurial rheumatism, and often necrosis of the bones.

Bowling Green, Ky., Mitchell House. Gentlemen:—For over four years I suffered greatly from a severe case of Contagious Blood Poison. I went to Hot Springs, staying there four months at a big expense. I then consulted physicians, who prescribed Mercury. Nothing proved more harmful than benedict. I continued to suffer for four years. I mentioned my case to a friend, who told me that S. S. S. had certainly cured him. I at once commenced its use, and in six months could find no trace of the disease whatever. This was about two years ago, and there has been no signs of return. D. M. SANDERS.

S. S. S., a remedy made from roots, herbs and barks, is the only known antidote for Contagious Blood Poison. It thoroughly and permanently eradicates the poison from the blood so that no sign is ever seen of the disease in future. S. S. S. builds up instead of tearing down the system, as do Mercury and Potash, and when it has cured the disease every part of the body has been toned up by its purifying and tonic effects. S. S. S. also removes any effects of the mineral treatment from the blood. We offer a reward of $1,000.00 for proof that S. S. S. contains a particle of Mercury, Potash or any other mineral. Home treatment book and any medical advice will be given without charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

NEW BLUE AND GOLD HE FELT IS UNDER WAY THE JAR

Work Already Begun on University Berkeley Man a Victim of Explosion.

BERKELEY, August 18.—Today was open house at Blue and Gold headquarters in North Hall. Heads of departments were given their assignments, appointments made for the junior offices, office hours determined upon and the work on the big book officially begun for the semester.

The official photographers for the annual this year are Vaughn and Keith of San Francisco. Their first work will be on the pictures of the class and will begin today. Any member of the class will be eligible to make an appointment for a photo upon the presentation of a receipt showing that the class assessment has been paid. It is desired that all juniors make their appointments as soon as possible.

Until further notice the Blue and Gold office hours will be from 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 1 p. m. to 4 p. m. During these hours the office will be in charge of some member of the staff. The official headquarters for the junior class for the entire year, and in it will be evolved the schemes that the class hope will make the 1907 Blue and Gold one that will stand forth for its cleverness and originality.

Arrangements have been made whereby the printers, the Sunset Company of San Francisco, will take the copy as fast as it is ready. As a result they will begin to set type for the book within the next few weeks as fast as the copy is edited and the ultimate length of the different articles can be accurately determined upon. The cuts for the headings that have been drawn during the summer will also be made as fast as the drawings are approved by the art staff. This early work has not been attempted in former years and the editors believe that the early completion of the less important features much more time will be given later on to the more difficult work than has ever been before given. For a number of years no type has been set on the book before the second semester of the year.

The managing editors, to whom has been given the heavy responsibility of getting the copy together, attending to photographs, making assignments and attending to the other innumerable features of compiling a large volume, will be Ralph Merritt, Ernest Vollmer and Miss Margery Lynch. Merritt will have charge of the Blue and Gold office and assignment work. Vollmer will have charge of printing and the general make-up of the book. To Miss Lynch has been allotted the difficult task of attending to all of the photographs that will be taken for the book. The heads of the departments are to meet Ralph Merritt today to arrange for their scheduled office hours.

"OH, YOU FRESHIE!" Y. M. C. A. IN FIELD

This Will Be the Cry At University Meeting Association to Have a Night School.

BERKELEY, August 18.—Following the usual custom the first University meeting of the year will be given in reception of the freshman class. It will be held at Harmon gymnasium on Monday, August 21, at 11 a. m.

Following closely on the trials and tribulations which each freshman will encounter in his effort to register, they will assemble at the gymnasium to receive some good and well-meant advice. As usual President Wheeler will act in the capacity of mentor.

The custom of using the first University meeting of the year for the purpose of advising the entering class in regard to the aim of a college education and the condition of the freshman in college life has become so firmly rooted in the course of the year, that it has come to be regarded as one of the traditions of the University.

There is no doubt that it accomplishes its purpose since it is then that the freshmen are given a true insight into the purpose of a college education.

BACK TO HIS WORK Professor Putnam Returns From Long Absence.

BERKELEY, August 18.—Professor F. W. Putnam, director of the department and museum of anthropology of the University, has returned after nearly a year's absence in the East. He comes to manage and direct for the ensuing year, the work of the department, which has owed its recent development to the support of Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst. He will be occupied with the supervision of the various lines of work in the department such as archaeological field explorations, the preparation of the archaeological and ethnological collections kept in the temporary museum at the affiliated colleges.

Professor Putnam is to preside at the first meeting of the American Anthropological Association on the Pacific coast, which will be held in Berkeley. He will remain until about October.

CITIZENS PROTEST

Property Owners Object to Street Work.

BERKELEY, August 18.—A meeting of citizens interested in the proposed improvements on Piedmont avenue and Warring street was held last night at the residence of Julian Le Conte, corner of Dwight way and Piedmont avenue. A petition to the Board of Trustees protesting against the widening and extending of Piedmont avenue and Warring street was adopted.

Those present at last night's meeting were: C. R. Greenleaf, Anson S. Blake, Clinton Day, Professor E. W. Hilgard, Professor F. S. Latta, L. F. Parish, Dr. F. W. Harwood, Captain Haines, Brewster A. Hayne, George Stult, C. S. Perry, Julian Le Conte, C. L. Biedenbach, H. Stillman and Ray Greenleaf.

The petition sets forth that the signs are land owners in the district described in the resolution providing for the extending and widening of Piedmont avenue and Warring street, and that they protest against the proposed work for the reason that "Piedmont avenue and Warring street are now separate streets. On the north, Piedmont avenue ends within about 400 feet of the south line of the lands of the University of California. Warring street ends on the south within about 600 feet of the line of Judge Garber. Both of these streets run parallel from north to south. Both streets are blind streets, being between two large tracts of land and within many hundred feet of each other. The present proceedings only propose to extend these blind ends—Piedmont avenue north and Warring street south, the said two streets remaining blind. Nothing, therefore, is accomplished by the work. In addition to this it is proposed to connect these two streets by taking about $18,000 worth of lands near Dwight way. The lands to be taken at the blind ends and also near Dwight way are exceedingly valuable. We repeat, therefore, that nothing is accomplished and no benefits result from the expenditure of the large sums necessary to make the changes."

The petitioners request that all proceedings in the matter of improving the streets named be rescinded at once. Many signatures have been secured and the petition will be presented at the next meeting of the Town Board.
